CHASE CORPORATION Named to Boston Globe 100
Nineteenth-Annual Listing Ranks Top Massachusetts-Based Public Companies

Bridgewater, MA - May 23, 2007 – Chase Corporation has been named to the “Globe 100” list of top performing public companies in Massachusetts, The Boston Globe announced yesterday.

Based on a composite score derived from financial data for the four quarters ending December 31, 2006, Chase Corporation was ranked 31 among Massachusetts-based companies whose stock is publicly traded on NASDAQ, New York Stock Exchange or American Stock Exchange. Chase Corporation has been included in the Globe 100 each year since 1997.

“The companies in the Globe 100 have distinguished themselves in not only their respective fields but among other Massachusetts businesses,” said Globe business editor Shirley Leung. “This year’s Globe 100 highlights the broad spectrum of both old and new Massachusetts companies, from cutting-edge sectors like biotechnology to long-standing staples like construction.”

To qualify for the Globe 100, a company must have been public for the entire 2006 calendar year and have reported a positive net income for both 2005 and 2006.

“We are grateful for the recognition of the success of our team,” said Peter R. Chase, Chairman and CEO. “Chase Corporation is proud to be a part of the Globe 100”.

The Globe 100, now in its 19th year, ranks Massachusetts-based public companies based on financial data from the four quarters ending closest to December 31, 2006, and for corresponding quarters a year earlier.

Chase Corporation is a publicly traded company (AMEX: ccf) and is a leader in manufacturing Tapes, Laminates, Sealants, and Coatings for the protection of high reliability, specialty Electronic, Construction and Consumer applications. Details of Chase Corporation can be found at www.chasecorp.com
